We found an error in our published article. The sentence (page 139) should be corrected as the following:

from "On the other hand, the genetic classification by DNA relationships decided recently that the 13 pathogenic Leptospira species belonged to previously described genomospecies 1, 3, 4, and 5, with more than 260 serovars depending on characterization of epitopes of the lipo-polysaccharide antigens [9]."

to "On the other hand, the genetic classification by DNA relationships comprises 13 pathogenic Leptospira species, with more than 260 serovars [9]."
