S2 Fig. Kaplan-Meier analysis for estimating the risk of prostate cancer development over 10 years (2003-2013) according to the medication types, including never medication, partial medication (less than 60%), and full medication (more than 60%). Log-rank test was used to define the statistical differences between these groups. NSAID, nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drug.