

S7 Fig. Counselor satisfaction score (range, 1 to 5) according to the result of genetic test (n=374). The area of each circle indicates the number of counselors with the relevant satisfaction score. Asterisk means a statistically significant difference in distributions of satisfaction score between two groups, which was analyzed using Mann-Whitney's U test.