

Supplementary Fig. 1. Total cholesterol and triglyceride levels measured in a 48-year-old lung cancer patient who showed a history of vitamin C administration.