

Table S3. Attitudes and perspectives on persons with disabilities

Please circle the appropriate number which best corresponds with your opinions on persons with disability

	Strongly disagree	Somewhat disagree	Neutral	Somewhat agree	Strongly agree
1. Persons with disability should live with those without disability in community. ^{a)}	1	2	3	4	5
2. If provided adequate support, persons with disability can lead social lives as people without disability can. ^{a)}	1	2	3	4	5
3. Persons with disability deserve to live where they want in ways they want. ^{a)}	1	2	3	4	5
4. With sufficient qualifications and through legitimate process, persons with disability can be elected. ^{a)}	1	2	3	4	5
5. I will not let my children hang out with children with disability.	1	2	3	4	5
6. I feel uncomfortable being around persons with disability because I feel like I need to help them.	1	2	3	4	5
7. I feel uncomfortable encountering persons with disability because I am not sure how to treat them.	1	2	3	4	5
8. It is difficult for me to approach persons with disability, because I feel like they are different from me.	1	2	3	4	5
9. If I had a family member with disability, I would not want people to find out.	1	2	3	4	5
10. Persons with disability would consider themselves unfortunate.	1	2	3	4	5
11. I feel bad for persons with disability.	1	2	3	4	5
12. I feel sorry for persons with disability when they need to put extra effort to do daily tasks	1	2	3	4	5
13. Persons with disability usually ask special treatment for their disability.	1	2	3	4	5
14. Persons with disability tend to leave difficult tasks for people without disability.	1	2	3	4	5

^{a)}Reverse coded items. Higher scores indicate more negative attitudes toward disability.