

Supplementary Table S1. Patient Satisfaction Questionnaire

No.	Item
1	Were you satisfied with the size of the monitor you used?
2	Was the distance between you and the equipment used appropriate?
3	Was the instruction on how to use the content at the start presented in a way that was easy for you to understand?
4	Were you satisfied with the accuracy of the screen's touch recognition?
5	Was the speed of the light used in the Visual Tracking appropriate?
6	Was the size of the letters that appeared suitable for use?
7	Were the positions of the appearing lights, circles, lines, etc., suitable for using the program?
8	Were the sizes of the appearing lights, circles, lines, etc., appropriate for using the program?
9	Was the brightness of the monitor screen convenient to use without causing eye fatigue?
10	Was the distance between the monitor and the user convenient for use without causing fatigue in eye movements?
11	Was it convenient to use each training content without physical side effects (such as dizziness, vomiting) during the training?