

Baseline characteristics
Age:	Birthday:	Gender: M/F
Religion:
Education:
The following items are questions on your opinion and willingness about organ donation.
1. Are you a registered organ donation applicant after brain death? ① Yes ② No
* A registered organ donation applicant after brain death is a person who has pledged officially to donate his or her organs when he or she falls into brain death through medical or public institutions.
2. Would you donate your organs if you fell into brain death? ① Yes ② No
3. Would you donate your spouse's organs if your spouse fell into brain death? ① Yes ② No
4. If your spouse falls into brain death and your spouse is registered as an organ donor, will you donate your spouse's organs? ① Yes ② No
5. If it is essential to determine whether or not you wish to donate your organs after brain death when registering or renewing a driver's license, how do you feel about this system? ① Very positive ② Positive ③ Not sure ④ Negative ⑤ Very negative
6. If a decision on whether or not to register as an organ donor after brain death is essential for issuing or renewing your driver's license, would you like to register yourself as an organ donor? ① Yes ② No
7. If a decision on whether or not to register as an organ donor after brain death is essential for issuing or renewing your driver's license and your spouse is registered as an applicant for organ donation, will you donate your spouse's organs when he or she falls into brain death? ① Yes ② No
8. If a decision on whether or not to register as an organ donor after brain death is essential for issuing or renewing your driver's license and your spouse is not registered as an applicant for organ donation, will you donate your spouse's organs when he or she falls into brain death? ① Yes ② No

Supplementary Fig. 1. The questionnaire for the survey in the two-system model.