

Development of a Drug Management Performance Application: A Needs Assessment in Indonesia

Table S1. List of questions to assess user needs in an evaluation of drug management systems in Indonesia

Item	Question
Performance	What are the obstacles faced regarding monitoring drug management at the primary health centers? What are the strengths and weaknesses of the current information system in the primary health centers? Is there a performance output from the information system that is expected but has not been facilitated by the current information system?
Information	Is there information or data from the information system that is needed but has not been facilitated by the current information system?
Economic	To what extent are the benefits of information systems on the economic aspect in monitoring drug management performance?
Control	To what extent is the control or security aspect of the current information system? (control)
Efficiency	To what extent can information systems improve efficiency in monitoring drug management performance?
Service	Are there any problems in terms of service from the current information system? To what extent is the readiness of the primary health centers to develop an information system that can help monitor drug management performance?