

Supplemental Fig. S1. Sella magnetic resonance imaging findings of the patient. Sella magnetic resonance imaging was performed as insulin-like growth factor-I (IGF-I) levels were elevated and growth hormone levels were not suppressed in the 75 g oral glucose tolerance test. About 1.2×1.1×0.9 cm-sized heterogeneously less enhancing mass was observed in the Sella magnetic resonance image.