

Supplementary Table 2. Recommended items for assessment of facilities and equipment

Recommended item	Description
Waiting area	There should be a dedicated waiting area separate from the procedure room.
Toilet facilities	Separate male and female toilets should be accessible near the waiting area.
Changing rooms	Separate changing rooms for men and women should be provided.
Cleaning facilities	A facility for hand washing and an eye wash should be provided within the procedure room.
Computer equipment	The procedure room should have computer equipment used to check patient information and record test results.
Video recording equipment	The procedure room should have an image recording device that records endoscopy images during examination.
Monitoring devices in the procedure room	The procedure room should have devices to monitor blood pressure, pulse rate, and electrocardiography signals.
Recovery beds	More than one recovery bed should be provided for each procedure room.
Monitoring devices in the recovery room	Each recovery bed should be equipped with devices that monitor patients during recovery.
Ventilation system	The facility should have an independent ventilation system that controls the ventilation, humidity, and temperature of the procedure room.
Cleaning area	There should be a space for cleaning and sterilizing equipment that is separate from the procedure room.
Accessory equipment	The facility should have an electrosurgical unit. The facility should have forceps, snares, injectors, and clips.